

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 19th November 2005

The murderers of deceased Nirasha Iqbal should be arrested immediately

Islamabad: Parliamentarians Commission for Human Rights (PCHR) has demanded the government to immediately arrest the culprits of Massih teenager girl Nirasha Iqbal whose dead body was found last Thursday. It was said in a statement by Engineer Gyan Chund Singh MNA and Director PCHR. He called it a cowardice act against humanity as the murdered was not only child but from minority as well. He maintained that the Constitution of Pakistan guarantees protection and promotions of child rights but minority too.

Engineer Gyan Chund MNA, also maintained that the medical report testifies that Nirasha Iqbal became victim of rape brutality and it is duty Government to investigate the case objectively and bring the culprits to justice. He exhorted upon Ministry of Interior to appoint a special investigation team to provide speedy justice to the victim family.
