PCHR lauds ICJ decision on Israeli wall

ISLAMABAD: The Parliamentarians Commission for Human Rights (PCHR) has lauded the decision of International Court of Justice regarding the Israeli fence and separation barrier and urged international forums to also intervene in the case of continued illegal fencing by Indians at Indian Occupied Kashmir as both cases are of the same nature.

In a press statement issued, PCHR hailed International Court of Justice that has given its verdict against the construction of the wall being built by Israel stating Israel as “occupying power, in the Occupied Palestinian Territory” is violation of the international laws. “Therefore, it is also contrary to the international laws that India is doing it at occupied Kashmir by erecting fence on the Line of Control in Occupied Kashmir”, the Commission maintained.
